SUCCESSFUL SECOND ANNUAL SCHOOL FAIR HELD LAST WEEK

List Of The Prize Winners

The second annual School Fair of Monitor and District, held last Thursday, was a grand success from start to finish. The exhibits, in all classes, were of the best and the weather was all that could be desired.

The efforts of those in charge of it were fully rewarded and everything was carried through very smoothly. If the entries keep on increasing each year more space will have to be provided so that every exhibit can be shown to advantage and more floor space for spectators.

The exhibits were a credit to any district in the Province and go to show what can be done by a little care and perseverance on the exhibitor's part.

The potatoes shown were of the finest, the beets excellent the carrots and turnips above the average, while the other vegetables would all rank high at any fair. A look through the prize list will show the large scope of endeavor covered by the exhibits at the Fair, both indoor and outdoor work being included. There was a large and interesting display of plain and fancy sewing, crochet embroidery and knitting.

The array of cakes, pies, buns, cookies, etc., would put to shame the efforts of many a bake-shop, and the rising generation has no cause for worry about the ability of the future housekeepers in this district.

A fine display of canned fruits and pickles held a prominent place. Nor was the regular school work neglected, a large number of entries being noticed in the various classes in writing, drawing, composition, free hand, manual training and other lines of class-room study.

There was keen competition for the prizes in the livestock and poultry classes. The foot races, jumping, etc. provided considerable excitement for the spectators.

After the judges had completed their arduous duties the doors were thrown open to the public and the Hall was filled for a couple of hours with parents, scholars and friends, all anxious to know the results of the judging and awards.

After the racks had been cleared from the Hall and the seats arranged for the large gathering the young hopefuls took the stage and tried for to capture a prize in the elocution and public speaking contests. There should be no dearth of legislative members when these youngsters reach manhood.

The first and second prize winning exhibits in vegetables and grains are now on view at the local Bank, showing vividly what this district can do.

Ten schools had entries this year: Basin Lake, Creek Valley, Hillanvale, Horse Shoe, Ione, Minor, Monitor, New Bridgen, Stonelaw and Whittom.

Special mention was made of the entry from the New Bridgen School. With but a short time at their disposal and under adverse conditions they nevertheless turned in a very creditable display, under the leadership of Miss Rogers.

Arthur Evans, Stonelaw, received 3 lbs of Wee McGregor seed potatoes, last spring, cut them into 15 parts one to a hill and this fall he harvested two bushels of marketable spuds. From one hill alone he got 30 potatoes, all of good size and shape.

Mary Mitchell, Hillanvale, received, last spring, 2 turkey hens and a gobbler, each 1 year old. The hens laid a total of 110 eggs, and Mary now has 77 young vigorous turkeys for her season's work. Something to be proud of.

With willing workers like those who exhibited their wares, on Thursday, there are bright and prosperous years before this part of Alberta.

The Mistake Of Hoarding

Canada, like all countries of the first class, has journals and publications whose business it is to reflect and promote the special and particular interests of certain classes and institutions. There are trade journals devoted to the interests of almost every conceivable line; financial papers dealing with banking, insurance, loan, trust and mortgage corporations; papers promoting the welfare of the vast and all-important industry of agriculture and stock-raising; labor publications championing the cause and recording the activities of organized labor; purely political mouthpieces maintained to advance the cause of this or that party organization or political principle; journals and magazines maintained by churches and philanthropic and social service organizations; and straight out and out newspapers.

All these many publications are legitimate, praiseworthy and play an important and proper part in the life of a country like Canada providing they are straightforward and honest. The paper in which this article appears is, however, first, last and always a home paper devoted to recording the news, activities and upholding the interests of the people in the local community in which it circulates. It does not seek to serve any particular group, but the whole people of its own country and thereby help to advance the welfare of all. It does not profess to attempt to right the wrongs of the world nor to solve the gigantic problems of the present day, except in so far as the encouragement of sound, commonsense action by the ordinary everyday citizen helps in these directions. It is for this reason that so many of the articles appearing in this column are addressed to the individual occupying a small and perhaps inconspicuous place in the national life, but nevertheless one of the really great and influential factors making for national stability and progress—in fact, the basic, the greatest factor of all.

In common with all countries today, Canada is suffering, although not to the same extent as most lands, from a business depression resulting in tight money, a slackening in industry, high freight rates and high prices generally for commodities and a serious lack of employment for thousands willing and anxious to work. Governments, great corporations, captains of finance and industry, all have a tremendous responsibility during such a time as the present. Everybody recognizes this and the average citizen probably expects too much of them and demands that the impossible be done in an effort to right matters. But what is not so well recognized and appreciated is that each individual citizen can in a small way do much to improve conditions, and if all individuals, or a large majority of them, discharged their small duties the effect in the aggregate would be greater than anything Governments or corporations can do, and would make action possible by them which they are now powerless to take.

Take, for example, one present adverse condition—tight money! Hundreds of millions are required for national purposes and scores of millions more for financing the purchase and marketing of this year's crops, not to speak of the enormous sums necessary to keep the wheels of industry revolving in the present depressed state of business in order to prevent an actual shutdown in many directions. Can the average man do anything to relieve the money market? Of course he can, if he only will, but fear, selfishness and ignorance so frequently prevents him from doing so.

It is well, therefore, that every man should appreciate certain simple truths which are real economic facts. The business of the world is carried on on credit. In order that credit may be established and provided it is necessary that there be something substantial back of it. For this reason Governments and all banks and financial institutions maintain reserves in gold or liquid securities. It is a well known fact that a dollar deposited in a Bank serves as a source of credit for many times that amount. It is stated on reputable authority that a dollar deposited in a Bank provided anywhere from five to ten dollars of credit for the carrying on of business.

Yet there are many people who through fear, selfishness or ignorance, keep money in varying amounts in the house from year's end to year's end. They not only run the risk of loss through fire or theft, and lose the interest which their money on deposit would earn for them, but through the mistake of hoarding they are depriving the community of the incalculable benefits of the credit which their money placed in a recognized Bank would provide for the benefit of all, themselves included, because in our complex twentieth century civilization no man can live to himself alone and general adverse conditions affect him as well as all others.

A writer in an Ohio farm journal estimates that at least $5,000,000 in that State alone is hoarded away in homes which, if placed on deposit in Banks, would serve as a source of credit for from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000 and go a long way towards relieving the present critical situation. This writer points out that, aside from the protection afforded against loss by theft or fire, the biggest reason why all surplus money should find its way into the Banks as promptly as possible is that the Banks are the credit factories, and the raw material of the credit which they manufacture is hard cash, and it is hard cash which the country needs at the present time. Moral: Don't hoard your money but put it to work for yourself, your community and your country by placing it on deposit.

Mighty few people will steal so long as they can borrow.

Plot To Overthrow Soviet

Conspiracy Carried On Under Cloak Of Famine Relief.

Revelations at Moscow following the arrest of members of the Russian famine relief committee, are said to prove the committee was plotting to overthrow the Soviet Government under the cloak of carrying on relief work, says a dispatch to the London Daily Herald from the Russian capital. An extraordinary commission is said to have discovered letters showing the conspiracy was widespread. One of these is said to have outlined a scheme for reorganizing Russia under a supreme ruler with a federal duma regional, and parish dumas, and local governors.

Canadian Flour in Venezuela

Venezuelan bakers will use Canadian flour when the price drops to that quoted on American flour is stated in a communication issued by the Dominion Department of Trade and Commerce, and based upon a report from H. A. Chisholm, Canadian Trade Commissioner in Venezuela. The bakers of the South American Republic express the opinion that Canadian flour is of a very superior quality.

Born That Way.

She—Has your friend long been bald? He looks so young! He (pathetically)—He was born so. She (much moved)—The poor thing!

Teacher—Why, Tommy! How can you come to school when your little brother has scarlet fever?

Little Tommy—Well, Miss Brown, he's only my half-brother.

A CORDIAL INVITATION TO DISEASE

This is an apt description of Constipation. It's an unnatural condition to begin with—but it's dangerous because it leads to indigestion, fills the system with poisons—brings on anaemia. You don't need a purgative, you don't want to weaken the system by a harsh gripping medicine—what you need is mild natural stimulant to the bowels. You get just what you need in Dr. Hamilton's Pills which tone up the liver, restore the bowels to perfect action, and positively end constipation. You'll feel up to it after regularizing your system with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Good for young and old—a real family medicine, 25c all dealers or The Carthorpe Co., Montreal.

Belgium is already supplying France with coal and Great Britain with glass.

WHEN BABY IS ILL

When the baby is ill; when he cries a great deal and no amount of attention or petting makes him happy, Baby's Own Tablets should be given him without delay. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus drive out constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make teething easy. Concerning them Mrs. Desire Theberge, Trois Pistols, Quebec, writes: "I am well satisfied with my use of Baby's Own Tablets. I have found them of great benefit to my baby when he was suffering from constipation and I can strongly recommend them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Smith family numbers 14,000 members throughout the world.

The Minard's Liniment People. Sirs—I feel that I should be doing a wrong if I neglected to mention that I had had tumors growing on my head for years. I had them cut off by a surgeon about fifteen years ago, but they grew again till about three months ago I had one as large and shaped like a lady's foot on the very place where my hair should be parted, and I was getting so embarrassed in public that it was a constant worry to me. About three months ago I put a bottle of your liniment for another purpose and saw on the label good for tumors. Well, I tried it and kept it on exactly two months, with the result that it has entirely removed all trace of the tumor, and were it not that they had been cut fifteen years ago, no mark would be seen. I had not been asked for this testimonial and you can use it as you see fit.

(Signed) FRED C. ROBINSON. P.S.—I am a farmer and intend using Minard's Liniment on a mare for a strained tendon, and am hoping for a cure.

Catarrhal Conditions

Catarrh is a local disease greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. It therefore requires constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is taken internally and acts through the mucous membranes of the System. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE gives the patient strength by improving the general health and assists Nature in doing its work. All Druggists. Circular free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Even if the wind does whistle occasionally, it never tackles popular airs.

Miller's Worm Powders are the medicine for children who are found suffering from the ravages of worms. They immediately alter the stomachic conditions under which the worms subsist and drive them from the system, and at the same time, they are tonic in their effect upon the digestive organs, restoring them to healthful operation and ensuring immunity from further disorders from such a cause.

Well Known Farmer Declares He Only Had Bare Fighting Chance

"When I began taking Tanlac it looked like I only had a bare fighting chance for life, but it put me on my feet feeling as fine as any man could want to feel," said William Padfield, well-known farmer living at Kipling, Sask.

"I was so emaciated that I only weighed 120 pounds when I started taking Tanlac, and was so weak I am almost in a state of collapse. I could not get any good out of the little I ate, as my stomach was in such an awful condition that even the lightest food soured and caused me misery.

"It was lucky for me that I took the advice of a friend who told me about Tanlac. It could not have done better if it had been made especially for my case, as it took hold of me right from the start and fixed me up so I could eat anything.

"Never in my life have I seen anything to equal the way I have gained in weight. I now weigh 185 pounds, have my strength back, and I can honestly say that I never felt better in my life or had more energy. Tanlac certainly does the work."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

News To Many

United States Has No Organization For Harvest Help.

More than 30,000 farm hands came to the west from Toronto and the east to Manitoba and Saskatchewan to work a month at $4 a day. They were clean-cut, intelligent young fellows, full of pep and ambition, and many of them will remain in the west as permanent developers. They were recruited by Dominion agencies in the east and all arrangements, including transport, were organized and managed by the government. This great movement of unskilled labor to meet the widespread, hurry-up demand of the harvest is in strong contrast to the hit or miss methods employed in the States.—Minneapolis News.

The Bulgarian Government has accepted, in principle, the proposal of the British river syndicate on the Danube to form an Anglo-Bulgarian Company to run boats on that river. This proposal conforms to the general policy followed by England in respect to the Danube, tending to give to England a preponderant position in the river traffic of this international waterway.

Note and Comment

We overheard several persons complaining about the noise and interruption caused by people entering the Hall, on School Fair night, during the public speaking and elocution contest. There was a considerable disturbance, at times, by late-comers entering the hall which certainly made it rather unpleasant both to those on the platform and the audience.

If we would all give this a little thought more of us would make it a point to be in place before the meetings start, and thus do away with a chronic complaint, found at practically all public gatherings, here and elsewhere.

To W. F. Hargrove, principal of the local school, goes most or all of the credit for the success of the School Fair, and it was through his untiring efforts carried along to the final wind-up without a hitch. Mr. Hargrove has placed the Monitor School Fair on a solid footing and it should go ahead steadily every year and make a name for itself in this Province.

Look how far you've gone since your crank-case was cleaned—

IF you have gone more than 1,000 miles without having your crank-case cleaned; chances are ten to one that your operating expenses are about twice what they should be. Very likely the snug-fitting and rapidly moving parts in your motor are burning and wearing themselves out at an alarmingly rapid rate, too.

Dirty oil, filled with grit, mineral particles and road dust cannot lubricate. Your crank-case should be thoroughly cleaned and refilled with fresh lubricating oil at least every 1,000 miles—more often if your car gets hard usage.

Imperial Polarine Crank-Case Service Dealers are particularly equipped to deliver 100% cleaning service. Imperial Flushing Oil, the scientific cleaning agent employed by them, gives unsurpassed results which are not possible with kerosene (coal oil) or similar things that are altogether unsuited for crank-case cleaning.

This is economy year. Clean oil and a clean engine will save you a lot of money. To-day: Drive round to one of the addresses listed at the left, or to any dealer who displays the Blue Imperial Crank-case Service Sign. Prompt reliable crank-case cleaning is assured.

Presently she reached the water, and her quick ear caught the sound of a muskrat slipping gently into the stream from the reeds on the opposite bank; she could see the widening wake where he ploughed his swift way across the pond. Then her own figure stood up before her, graceful and lithe as the willows on the bank. She surveyed it a minute, then flicked the flower at her face in the water, and turned slowly homeward. She was not unhappy, but a dull sense of loss oppressed her, a sense that the world was very rich and very beautiful, and that she was feasting neither on its richness nor its beauty. There was a stirring of music and poetry in her soul, but either music nor poetry found expression. What she felt was a consciousness that great things were just beyond the horizon of her experience, things undefined and undefinable which, could she but grasp them, would deepen life and sweeten life and give a purpose to all her being. And as she walked up the path and the fragrant night air filled her nostrils, something of that wilder life seemed borne in upon her and sent a fresh spring to her ankle. And presently she discovered she was thinking about Jim Travers.

Her mother sat in the dining room, knitting by the light of the hanging lamp. Her face seemed very pale and lovely in the soft glow. "Don't you think you have done enough?" said the girl, slipping into a sitting posture on the floor by her mother's knee. "You work, work, work, all the time. I suppose they'll have to let you work in heaven."

"We value our work more as we grow older," said the mother. "It helps to keep us from thinking."

"There you go!" exclaimed the girl, but there was a tenderness in her voice. "Worrying again. I wish they'd stay home for a change."

The mother plied her needles in silence. "Slip away to bed, Beulah," she said at length. "I will wait up for a while."

Late in the night the girl heard heavy footsteps in the kitchen and bursts of loud but indistinct talking.

CHAPTER VII. The Call of the Farther West.

Notwithstanding Harris's late hours the household was early astir the following morning. At five o'clock Jim was at work in the stables, feeding, rubbing down, and harnessing his horses, while Allan and his father walked to the engine, where they built a fresh fire and made some minor repairs. Even at this early hour the sun shone brightly, its rays mellowing in a sheen of ground-mist that enveloped the prairie, but there is a tang in the Manitoba morning air even in midsummer, and the men walked briskly through the crisp stubble. A little later Beulah came down to the corral with her milkpails, and the cows, comfortably chewing where they rested on their warm spots of earth, rose slowly and with evident great reluctance at her approach. A spar of light blue smoke ascended in a perpendicular column from the kitchen chimney; motherly hens led their broods forth to forage; pigs grunted with rising enthusiasm from nearby pens, and calves voiced insistent demands from their quarters. The

Harris farm, like fifty thousand others, rose from its brief hush of rest and quiet to the sounds and energies of another day.

Breakfast, like the meal of the night before, was eaten hurriedly, and at first without conversation, but at length Harris paused long enough to remark, "Riles is talkin' o' goin' West."

"The news might be worse," said Beulah. Riles, although a successful farmer, had the reputation of being gruff and hard to a degree, even in a community where such qualities, in moderation, were by no means considered vices.

Harris paid no attention to his daughter's interruption. It was evident, however, that his mention of Riles had a purpose behind it, and presently he continued:

"Riles has been writin' to the Department of the Interior, and it seems they're openin' a lot of land for homesteadin' west of us, not far from the Rocky Mountains. Seems they have a good climate there, and good soil, too."

"I should think Mr. Riles would be content with what he has," said Mary Harris. "He has a fine farm here, and I'm sure both him and his wife have worked hard enough to take it easier now."

"Hard work never killed nobody," pursued the farmer. "Riles is good for many a year yet, and free land ain't what it once was. Those homesteads'll be worth twenty dollars an acre by the time they're proved up."

"I wish I was sure of it—I wouldn't think long," said Allan. "But they say it's awful dry; all right for ranchin', but no good for farmin'."

"Who says that?" demanded his father. "The ranchers. They know which side their bread's buttered on. As long as they can get grazin' land for two cents an acre, or maybe steady in Manitoba have more cattle now than they can count—they care 'em by acres, Riles says."

Breakfast and Harris's speech came to an end simultaneously, and the subject was dropped for the time. In a few minutes Jim had his team hitched to the tank wagon in the yard. The men jumped aboard, and the wagon rattled down the road to where the engine and ploughs sat in the stubble field.

"What notion's this father's got about Riles, do you suppose, mother?" asked Beulah, as the two women busied themselves with the morning work in the kitchen.

"Dear knows," said her mother wearily. "I hope he doesn't take it in his head to go out there too."

"Who'd he go? Oh, he wouldn't do that. He's hardly got finished with the building of this house, and you know for years he talked and looked forward to the building of his new house. His heart's quite wrapped up in the farm here. I wish he'd unwrap it a bit and let it peck out at times."

"I'm not so sure. I'm beginning to think it's the money that's in the farm your father's heart is set on. If the money was to be made somewhere else, his heart would soon shift."

"Mother!" exclaimed the girl. In twenty years it was the first word approaching disloyalty she had heard from her father's lips, and she could hardly trust her ears. It was nothing for Beulah to criticize her father; that was her daily custom, and she could hardly trust her ears. It was nothing for Beulah to criticize her father; that was her daily custom, and she could hardly trust her ears. It was nothing for Beulah to criticize her father; that was her daily custom, and she could hardly trust her ears.

"Well, I just can't stand it much longer," said the mother, the emotion which she had so long held in check overcoming her. "Here I've slaved and saved until I'm an old woman, and what better are we for than to have better things to eat and more things to wear and a bigger house to keep clean, and your father thinks we ought to be satisfied. But he isn't satisfied himself. He's slaving harder than ever, and now he's got this notion about going West. Oh, you'll see it will come to that. He knows our life isn't complete, and he thinks more money will complete it. All the experience of twenty years hasn't taught him any better."

Beulah stood aghast at this outburst, and when her mother paused and looked at her, and she saw the unbidden wells of water gathering in the tender eyes, the girl could no longer restrain herself. With a cry she flung her arms about her mother's neck, and for a few moments the two forgot their habitual restraint and were but naked souls mingling together.

"It's a shame," exclaimed Beulah at length. "We're not living; we're just existing. When I get among people that are really living—like the Grants, over there—you don't know how mortified and mean I feel. And it's not that alone—it's the sense of loss, the sense that life is going by and I'm not making the best of it. You know we are missing the real thing; we are just living on the husks, and father is so blind he thinks the husks are the grain itself."

"You father is hungry, too," said the mother. "Hungry—hungry, and he thinks that more land, more money, more success, will fill him. And in the meantime he's forgetting the things that would satisfy—the love that was ours, the little devils—Oh, child, what am I saying. What am I saying more about it. I'll fly off, that's what I'll do. And I've a few remarks for him about Riles that won't keep much longer. The old fellow—he's at the bottom of all this."

"The shame is his," declared the girl, defiantly, "and I won't stand this nonsense about homesteadin' again—I just won't stand it. If he says anything more about it I'll fly off, that's what I'll do. And I've a few remarks for him about Riles that won't keep much longer. The old fellow—he's at the bottom of all this."

"You mustn't quarrel with your father, dearie, you mustn't do that. I'm not going to quarrel with him, but I'm going to say some things that need saying. And if it comes to a showdown, and he must go—well, he must, but you and I will stay with the old farm, won't we, mother?"

But the mother's thought now was for quelling the storm in the turbulent heart of her daughter. Beulah's nature was not one to lend itself to passive submission, not yet passive resistance. She was the soul of loyalty, but with that loyalty she combined a furious intolerance of things as they should not be. She had not yet reached the philosophic age, but she was old enough to value life, and to know why she called the real things were escaping her. At night, as she looked up at the myriad stars spangling the heavens, the girl's heart was filled with an unnumbered yearning, a sense of restriction, of limitation, of loss—a sense that somewhere lay a Purpose and a Plan, and that only by becoming part of that Plan could life be lived to the fullest.

Her mother was of a different nature, not less brave, but more resigned; content to fill, without question, the niche to which fate assigned her; accepting conditions as a matter of course. Yet at times she had inklings of those deeper questions which arose in persistent interrogations before her child, and she guessed that she saw the Plan, not all her loyalty could dissuade her from following it. She strove to control the sudden outbreak in her own heart lest the fire lighted in Beulah's should break forth in conflagration.

"There, there now," she said, gently stroking her daughter's hair. "Let us forget this, and remember how much we have to be thankful for. We have our health, and our home, and the bright sunshine, and—I declare," she interrupted, catching a glimpse of something through the window, "the cows haven't broken from the lower pasture and are all through the outfield! You'll have to take Collie and get them back, somehow, or bring them up to the corral!"

In England, to secure greater safety on the highways, patrols are stationed at dangerous crossings to warn motorists, and at bad stretches of road.

The Seven Seas

Separate Continent Surrounds Each According to Hindu Mythology.

The "Seven Seas" exist in Hindu mythology, according to the Juras the earth is circular and flat, like the flower of a water lily. Its circumference is 4 billion miles. In the centre is Mount Soomeroo. On this mountain are three peaks formed of gold, pearls and precious stones, where the deities reside. At its base are three mountains, on each of which grow a tree 8,800 miles high. The country furthermore from these mountains is bounded by the salt sea. Beyond this sea there are six others—of sugar cane juice, of spirituous liquors, of clarified butter, or curds, of milk and nectar. Each sea is surrounded by a separate continent.

Five Irish Delegates Have Been Appointed To British Conference

Dublin.—The Dail Eireann approved its "cabinet" reply to Mr. Lloyd George's latest proposals and ratified the appointment of five delegates to a "possible conference" with representatives of Great Britain.

The appointments of plenipotentiaries approved were those of the following: Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein and "foreign minister," chairman; Michael Collins, "finance minister"; Robert C. Barton, who has been one of the leading figures in the preliminary negotiations; Eamonn J. Duggan, Sinn Fein member of parliament and a leading figure in the arrangement of the Irish truce; George Gavan Duffy, who has acted as representative of the Sinn Fein abroad.

Nothing has leaked out as to whether the reply is acceptance or non-acceptance of the invitation to a conference, but the fact that five Irish plenipotentiaries have been appointed is taken as indicating confidence in continuance of the negotiations. Mr. Lloyd George is expected to remain in Scotland at least another three weeks.

Grain Exchange Appoints New Head

Retiring President Says Producers Should Understand Marketing Methods.

Winnipeg.—C. H. Leaman was formally elected president of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, succeeding Norman L. Leach, retired, at the annual meeting. J. B. Craig and Dr. Robert Magill, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, who were elected by acclamation along with Mr. Leaman at the nomination meeting were also installed in office.

A resume of the past year's work in the grain trade, with suggestions for the general improvement of the trade was the feature of the retiring president's address, which stated: "There is today a wider and keener interest in grain marketing methods and systems; there are many criticisms of these methods. They should be more clearly understood by the producer, the business and general community at large, and I submit to you the suggestion of co-operation with and education of your trade, your customers and the general public toward that end."

Greeks Will Resume Offensive

Smyna.—Greek operations against the Turkish Nationalists have been interrupted, but will be resumed, said General Papoulas, commander-in-chief of the Greek armies in Asia Minor. He said his forces were convinced that they were able to annihilate the enemy.

The offensive was halted so the Greek soldiers might be given a rest and arranging for bringing up supplies and provisions.

Fire Destroys Lumber.

Trial Shipment Proves Failure

Alberta Government Lost On Shipment of Beef Cattle.

Edmonton, Alta.—The trial shipment of fat beef cattle that was sent to Scotland in June by the provincial department of agriculture, resulted in a net loss to the government. They show an average cost per head of $303, with an average return of $188.88. There were thirty-six head of export steers in the shipment. The animals were shipped to Glasgow and were there sold at the public market for immediate slaughter.

When the steers left Edmonton they stood at a cost to the government of $108.17 per animal, and the transportation charges, Edmonton to Glasgow, were $109.12 per animal. Added to this cost were the expenses of the attendant, bap charges and other overhead expenses, bringing the total cost per head to $302.07. Records kept en route show that there was practically no shrinkage in any of the animals. The sales in the Glasgow markets showed that the smaller handweight steers of good type and breeding, ranging from 1,200 to 1,350 pounds, were most in demand, the heavier fat steers not meeting with ready sale for the summer trade.

Alberta Premier Says Province Willing to Give Help.

Edmonton.—Mayors Duggan, Edmonton, and Adams, of Calgary, met Premier Greenfield to discuss the question of the Alberta cities obtaining aid from the Dominion housing scheme for the purpose of providing relief for unemployed.

Premier Greenfield gave assurance that as soon as proper evidence was produced to the effect that there was a real demand for houses in the cities, then the province would support the scheme and give security for the loans obtained.

U.S. Government Wants to Obtain Former German Zeppelin.

London.—Reports that the United States and British Governments may arrange for the transfer of one of Great Britain's remaining airships to United States ownership to replace the wrecked ZR-2, have received some credence in United States official circles here where it is stated the United States Government, some time prior to contracting for the ZR-2 considered the desirability of obtaining one of the former German Zeppelins for experimental and instructional purposes.

When these German air fighters were turned over to the allies, Italy, France and Britain received one each and America none. Great Britain's Zeppelin, the L-71 is the largest rigid airship in existence now that the ZR-2 is gone. Her cubic capacity is 2,420,000 feet or 380,000 feet less than the ZR-2. The length of the L-71 is 743 feet as against 695 feet for the ZR-2.

Italy Has Good Harvest

Crop Expected to Reach Pre-War Productiveness.

Rome.—Italy's harvest this year will reach its pre-war productiveness, according to the government crop forecasts. The total harvest anticipated will reach 51,200,000 quintals (of about 220 pounds each) comprising all kinds of grain.

The average pre-war crop was calculated at 48,000,000 quintals. During the war, production decreased to 38,000,000 quintals.

The present year's crop is also distinguished by the fact that it lacks but 6,000,000 in equalling the record grain crop of Italy, which was in 1913, when it reached nearly 58,000,000 quintals.

Chinese Canadian Trade Increases

Net Increase of 840 Per Cent. in Five Years.

Hamilton, Ont.—China and Canada have much in common, and their trade relationship is growing substantially every year, declared W. Y. Kwan, chairman of the Chinese Railway Commission to members of the Kinsmen's Club. He emphasized that in 1918, the last year in which statistics were available, China had imported and exported goods from and to Canada valued at more than $17,000,000, which when compared with 1913 figures showed a net increase of 840 per cent.

Edmonton.—Representing the mineral industry in the entire western provinces, 75 delegates were in attendance when the opening of the third annual western convention of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy "was called to order by the chairman, O. E. S. Whiteside, of Coleman. Mayor G. M. Duggan briefly addressed the visiting delegates, welcoming them to Edmonton on behalf of the city.

The Provincial Government was represented by Premier Greenfield, who spoke on the research work of the government in the matter of the mineral industry.

"The government is endeavoring to develop more markets for Alberta coal," declared Premier Greenfield, "but we have met with one difficulty and that is the grading of coal."

The Premier deplored the lack of uniformity in the grading of coal, and stated that it had proved a hindrance in the marketing of the product. "We are advertising, making demonstrations and continuing the research work," he said, "and I would like to suggest co-operation with the government as well as advise you that the uniform system of grading coal is a necessity."

Premier Greenfield gave an account of his trip into the north country, and said he was deeply impressed and encouraged by his observations of conditions. "The government test hole in the McMurray townsite where the mining of salt is being investigated by the research branch, was also mentioned by the premier. "The government is thoroughly aware of the importance of the mineral industries in the province," he said.

"The approach of the winter season and its effect on the unemployment situation in the province was touched upon by Mr. Greenfield. "I am opposed to so-called 'kitchen' and 'form' of relief," he said, "and would like to ask you to employ during the winter months, if possible, as much extra help as you can."

Total Canadian trade for August, 1921, amounted to $127,310,299, as compared with $238,085,409, for August, 1920. For the five months of the fiscal year closing with the end of August, total trade was 1921, $602,311,38; 1920, $1,063,353,170, a reduction of $461,038,132.

During August, 1921, imports entered for home consumption had a total value of $65,147,301, as compared with $124,318,014, a reduction of $59,170,713. For the five months ending August 31, the total merchandise entered for consumption was valued at $319,009,763, as compared with $597,890,603 in 1920. In August, 1921, domestic merchandise export had a total value of $112,278,064, as compared with $61,485,993 for August, 1921.

MUNICIPAL HAIL INSURANCE

The Municipal Hail Insurance Board of Alberta has put the premium rate at 10 per cent for this year, the highest it has ever been since the hail board was formed in 1914.

$2,150,000 will be paid out in awards from over 5,000 damage claims. A total of 2,266,321 acres was insured, early in the year, but insurance on 212,366 acres was withdrawn owing to crop conditions.

The average loss was about 33 per cent, and the average claim $400.00. Eighty per cent of the total acreage was insured at $10 and the remainder at $6 and $4, making a total risk of a little over $20,000,000. Last year the total risk was about $22,000,000.

The School Fair Day supper which was served by the Ladies Aid, in the building on Main St on Thursday of last week, is a thing of the past save in that tired feeling which necessarily follows such an event. Needless to say it was a success from every viewpoint, including the social, financial and physical exercise aspects of the event.

As it takes many different people to make up a world so it apparently takes many kinds of meat to make a successful supper—in Monitor especially, when the patronage is so extensive and the appetites so complimentary.

The officers of the organization wish to take this opportunity of thanking the people from the country for their contributions, the merchants of the town for their liberal donations and the contributing town girls and ladies for the part which they played in making the supper the success which it was. We appreciate the co-operative effort which enabled us this time to surpass all previously set straight supper records.

FORD

How the Ford Maintains Its Value

"Today the Ford is selling below the 1914 price and yet is a better car. How has this been made possible?"

Here is the answer to that question.

1. One standard model. As time goes on we improve our methods of doing the things we have always specialized upon. There are no losses due to radical and unnecessary changes in design causing the scrapping of machinery, tools and materials.

2. The adoption of new time and money-saving machines mean new savings.

3. Enormous production has permitted us to obtain lowest prices on raw materials.

Although the 1921 car sells for less money than the 1914 model, the following improvements have been added: an improved body, ventilating windshield, one-man top, demountable rims and better upholstery.

The extra value of the Ford is recognized. If you want early delivery, order now.

A Constantinople message to the London Times says it is believed the Greeks had 18,000 men put out of action during their recent drive toward Angora. The Turkish Nationalists' losses are placed at 12,000.

Edmonton's first carload of grain went eastward one week earlier than in 1920. It was a car of barley, shipped by W. Ross Alger and Company. The grain was purchased from R. W. Gerstun, North Edmonton, and appeared to be of splendid quality.

Reuter's Cape Town correspondent cables that Dr. Goodenough, professor of geology and zoology at Stellenbosch University, South Africa, was officially nominated to fill the vacancy on the staff of Sir Ernest Shackleton's Quest expedition to the Antarctic. MOTHERS!

WATCH YOUR TEETHING BABIES

THOUSANDS OF THEM DIE
EVERY SUMMER

When the baby starts to cut its teeth, then is the time the poor mother is under the stress of great anxiety. The child's bowels become loose, and diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps and many other bowel complaints manifest themselves; the gums become swollen, cankers form in the mouth, and in many cases the child wastes to a shadow, and very often the termination is fatal.

On the first indication of any looseness of the bowels, give a few doses of and thus, perhaps, save your baby's life. For the past 76 years "Dr. Fowler's" has been used by mothers for teething babies so you do not experiment with a new and untried remedy which might be dangerous to your darling's health.

Three Hundred Great Years

Undreamed of Advancement Since
British Empire Was Founded.

A period of three hundred years—a span which is short enough in the history of any age in which we are not directly concerned—is all that separates us from the beginning of the colonial policy upon which the mighty British Empire was founded, but these three centuries have seen new worlds discovered, new nations arise and an advancement in civilization beyond the dreams of those who lived at their beginning. The impressive ceremonies at Annapolis Royal possess far greater interest and significance than would attach to a merely local observance, for they celebrated events which have had no small part in moulding the history of this continent, and their effects have been felt over an even greater part of the surface of the globe.—The St. John Telegraph.

WIND ON THE STOMACH QUICKLY RELIEVED

It is a good thing to know just what to do when gas belching starts. One sufferer related the following experience: "A few months ago I ate some green vegetables and some fruit that was not quite ripe. It brought on indigestion, hiccoughs, nausea and cramps. I belched gas continually. A neighbor urged me to use 'Nervine.' I took it in hot, sweetened water, and got quick relief. I will never again be without this valuable remedy." Nervine is a household necessity, large 35c bottle sold everywhere.

To Produce Dyes

A joint stock company will be formed in Winnipeg in the near future with a capitalization of $2,000,000 and a plant valued at more than $250,000 will be erected in St. Boniface, for the production of dyes according to T. H. Brooks, inventor of a new method of extracting aniline dyes from coal tar.

Really Reliable Asthma Remedy. All sufferers from chronic Asthma should try Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, no matter how many others have failed to give relief. It is a common-sense thing for Dr. J. D. Kellogg to succeed where others fail, as is testified by many thousands who have found this out for themselves. Why continue to endure days and nights of unspeakable agony when a remedy of such high standing has not yet been tried?

Started Forest Fire

Robert Louis Stevenson Would Have Been Lynched If Caught.

In connection with American forest fires it may be recalled that one of England's most distinguished men of letters once was guilty of having fired a forest in California, and had been identified with the accident—which the inhabitants of the locality would have construed instantly as a crime—he would have suffered the capital penalty under lynch law. Robert Louis Stevenson, in his "Old Pacific Capital," admits the folly that induced him to satisfy his curiosity as to the inflammable nature of the moss that ornaments the pine trees in the woods above Monterey by applying a match to the trunk of the tree, instead of detaching a portion of the moss and experimenting in safety.

As it was, the tree went off like a rocket. "In three seconds it was a roaring pillar of fire. Men were at work near by, combating another breach, and had any one observed Stevenson's experiment his neck would not have been "worth a pinch of snuff." At night he was able to discern his "own particular fire" quite distinct from the other, and burning "with even greater vigor."

CUTICURA HEALS INTENSE ITCHING

Burning On Hands, Could Not Put Them In Water, Lost Sleep.

"My hands were very sore and I could not put them in water to wash them. These were some pimples on my hands, and the itching and burning were so intense that I scratched and irritated them, and I could not sleep at night."

"The trouble lasted two weeks before I tried Cuticura. When I had used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment for about two weeks I was healed." (Signed) Reginald Daigle, R. F. D. 2, Fort Kent, Maine.

Use Cuticura for every-day toilet purposes. Rubbe with Soap, soothe with Ointment, dust with Talcum. Soap 25c, Ointment 25c and 50c, Talcum 15c. Sold throughout the Dominion, Canadian Drug Stores, Montreal, 341 St. Paul St., W. Montreal. Cuticura Soap shaves without using.

Postal Rates Advance

Will Be Four Cents to Other Parts of Empire.

An advance of one cent per ounce is announced in the letter postage rate between Canada and other parts of the Empire. The former rate was two cents per ounce with an added one cent as war tax. The new rate will be three cents an ounce, with one cent war tax additional.

The postage rate to foreign countries has been increased from five cents for the first ounce and three cents for each succeeding ounce to 10 cents for the first ounce and five cents for each additional ounce or fraction thereof.

A POPULAR TONIC

One That Enriches the Blood and Strengthens the Nerves.

Proper food, fresh air and a good tonic will keep most people in good health. Hurried meals, indoor confinement in badly ventilated rooms and lack of exercise causes anaemia. In this condition Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a popular tonic. Their benefit in anaemic conditions is shown by the case of Miss Lucy A. Steeves, Hillsboro, N.S., who says: "Last spring I was in very poor health, and completely run down. I had severe headaches, the least exertion would cause my heart to palpitate violently, my appetite was poor, and at times I had fainting spells. This went on for some months, and although I was taking medicine, I seemed to be growing weaker, and the least exertion would leave me worn out. Then on the advice of a friend, I changed the treatment to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I have great cause to be thankful that I did so. The pills have made a wonderful improvement in my condition. I can now work without fatigue, go upstairs without becoming breathless, and have gained in weight. I think these pills are an ideal medicine in cases like mine."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for 2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Becoming Frock For The Dark-Eyed Girl

By Marie Belmont.

This lovely frock is made of a fine quality of burnt orange voile. The bodice is designed with a widespread fichu which is prettily draped about the shoulders. This is edged with ecru lace. The small puffed sleeves are trimmed in like manner. The skirt shows a continuation of the fichu effect, for it is designed with an irregular overskirt. This is caught up at the side with a spray of black-edged susans. The underskirt is also adorned with the ecru lace. A belt of dark brown velvet ribbon defines the waistline and clustered at one side of the frock is another spray of the black-centred flowers.

The Milk Maid.

A young man went on one occasion to call at a country farm house to make inquiries after his sweetheart, who had charge of the dairy. Her master opened the door, and her lover asked him timidly:

"How is the milkmaid?" But the farmer angrily replied, as he slammed the door on the stranger's face: "Our milk isn't made; it's got from the cow."
